Substance: Iron [including Iron, Furnace]

Dear Members of the SIEF for Iron [Einecs number 231-096-4, CAS number 7439-89-6], including Iron, Furnace [Einecs number 265-998-4 CAS number 65996-67-0]:

We are pleased to advise that we have just posted a document with guidance on analysis techniques for determining sameness of iron on the guidance page of our website. We trust that this will be helpful to you. Please follow the link to the document in the preceding sentence.

Uses of Iron

Further to our email of July 22nd on the subject of the uses of iron, thanks to those who have already followed up with comments and suggestions. The Lead Registrant will of course give due consideration to all comments and suggestions received and will endeavour to respond to each directly. We have to set a time limit on this as it is planned to submit the registration dossier at the end of this month - please ensure that your comments and suggestions are made no later than July 29th - thanks in advance for your co-operation.

Clémence Romaru, ArcelorMittal
